

Barbara A. Silverberg

Barbara Silverberg is Head of Legal for Dell Canada, where she is a member of the company's Senior Management Team and Pension Committee, and was Executive Sponsor for the Company's Community Involvement program for eight years. She is responsible for providing advice and guidance to the Canada president, leadership team and employee base on various legal matters. She was also the global lead for Dell's Competition Steering Council, which determines global risk and strategy for competition law issues for the Company, and interim head of Ethics for Europe and the Middle East Region. She coaches and mentors the Canada legal team and members of the external legal community.

Barbara joined Dell from First Capital Realty Inc., a TSX listed real estate development company, where she was Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary. Prior to that she was Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Labatt USA (now Anheuser Busch Inbev). Barbara started her career in the corporate/commercial group of the Torys law firm in Toronto. She is a past Board Member of Skylark Youth and Families ("Skylark"), and past Chair of the Board of Directors of Oolagen Community Services (now Skylark) and of the Oolagen CEO Search Committee. She is passionate about DEI, and participates in various Dell and external legal community diversity initiatives. Barbara is currently an executive sponsor of Mosaic, Dell's employee resource group promoting cultural diversity, she is a member of Legal Leaders for Diversity, and of Dell's Legal department diversity committee actively participating in the student outreach and communications initiatives. She speaks French and some Spanish.